Dear Judge Pauley:

We write to provide the Court with the status of the above-captioned case and to request an adjournment of the pre-trial conference scheduled for Friday, May 9, 2008 at 11:30 a.m.

We are attorneys for the Plaintiff in this admiralty action brought pursuant to Supplemental Admiralty Rule B of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. On January 24, 2008 an Ex Parte Order authorizing process of maritime attachment was issued permitting restraint of Defendants' property in the hands of garnishee banks located within the Southern District of New York. The Defendants have not appeared and none of its property has been restrained in New York despite daily service of the writ of attachment on the garnishee banks.

We have continued our daily service of the writ of attachment on the garnishee banks in an effort to obtain jurisdiction over the Defendants and secure our client's claim. However, to date, those efforts have been unsuccessful. We are still working with our client to determine what further steps, if any, may be warranted under these circumstances to seek to security for our client's claim.

As Defendants have not appeared and no security has been obtained, we respectfully request a sixty (60) day adjournment of the pre-trial conference during which time we will seek to obtain jurisdiction over the Defendants by continued service of the attachment.

Should your Honor have any questions or comments we are available to discuss the same at any convenient time to the Court. This is Plaintiff's second request for an adjournment. Plaintiff's first request for an adjournment was granted on March 23, 2008. We thank your Honor for consideration of this request.

Application Granted. The initial pre-trial conference is adjourned to July 11, Respectfully Submitted,
SO ORDERED: 2008 at 12:00 p.m.
